ASL 202: American Sign Language

Explaining Rules

Unit 20
Vista - ASL Signing Naturally – Level 3

August 19	Rules We Live By The lesson is about driving rules, cultural rules, customs, and appropriate behavior. The first lesson introduces the rules and authoritative-diplomatic vocabulary. The students will learn to use a conditional clause to set up the situation before we explain the rules. Session 1: Driving Rules Session 2: Cultural Rules/Customs Homework assignment: Think of a school, family or cultural rule they've heard of, read about, or experienced and be prepared to share the rule in class. Read "Review Notes: Rules We Live by" pages 55-63
August 21	Card Games The lesson focuses on card games. Students will learn how to set-up specific games, how to play, and how to win. They will learn how to follow instructions by using space, spatial agreement, locative classifiers, instrument classifiers, and conditional clauses while playing cards. Session 1: How to Explain Card Games Session 2: Teaching Card Games Homework assignment: Complete "Assignment: Explaining Card Games," pages 64-69. You will need to explain how to play three card games in the next class.
August 26	Group Games The lesson teaches students how to organize instructions for a group game. Teachers and students work together to decide what kinds of rules are needed before playing the game. This requires the student to use various techniques to keep the group's attention while they practice playing the game. Session 1: Teaching Group Games Review for the Exam and prepare for the presentation
August 28	Final Presentation Take Exam at home (D2L)
